

BUILDING GLOBAL PARTNERSHIPS, STREAMLINING GLOBAL COMMERCE

OUR HISTORY

FTML started out in 2012 as a small venture but thanks to our high quality translation work, synergy and attractive costs. During this time we've used our experience in the translation industry and our network of only the best qualified language professionals to work on a wide scope of translation and localization projects. Our experienced executive team led by CEO Ankit Kapoor and Executive Vice President Darryl King, both with years of successful industry experience building and developing highly collaborative partnerships have enabled organizations to seamlessly achieve their Global commerce and growth goals.

VISION

Partnership based, ongoing continuous improvement partner model. Encouraging feedback, company mandate to thoroughly understand our partners challenges, project forecasts, departments, goals and growth visions. Our ultimate goal and vision is to develop Global partnerships streamlining Global commerce.

SERVICES

We are a full service translations and localization agency and work on all aspects of communication including written translations for website localization, marketing brochures, manuals or e-learning. In addition we provide several elements of translation services including lip syncing for video content, voice overs, subtitling or interpretation. Translation and interpretation Transcription Desktop Publishing (DTP) and Typesetting Foreign Language Voice Over Engineering Services Localization Web Content Management Transcreation Dubbing Translation of Intellectual Property, Marketing Materials Machine Translation E Learning Mobile Learning ILT and VILT.